

BHBL Jr. Baseball

Division and League Guidelines and Requirements

1. DIVISIONS-The league shall be divided into Divisions classified by player age groups using the following guidelines:
 - 1.1. Junior Division
 - 1.2. Senior Division

2. LEAGUES-Each Division shall be divided into the following leagues, and other leagues as established by the Commissioners by December 1. Player eligibility will be established based on the applicable rulebook for that league.

2.1. Junior Divisions: Leagues

2.1.1. Tee Ball

Introduction to baseball. 4 year olds and first year 5 year olds. Hit from tee. Emphasis on safety, skill development and fun. This level is non-competitive; no scores are kept. There are one to two games per week with practices at the coach's discretion. Season typically starts in the end of April and ends at the end of June, depending upon the school calendar.

2.1.2. Instructional Ball

5 year olds with 1 year of tee-ball and 6 year olds. Utilizes coach pitching. Played on the Lower Field on a 60' diamond. Emphasis on safety, skill development and fun. Typically, 2 games per week (Saturdays and a week day) with practices at coach's discretion. Season starts mid-April and ends the end of June.

2.1.3. Farm

7 and 8 years old. Kids pitch with coach taking over after a set amount of pitches. Youth umpires at each game. Emphasis on safety, skill development and fun. Typically, 2 games per week (Saturdays and a week day) with practices at coach's discretion. Season starts mid-April and ends the end of June.

2.1.4. Minors

8 years old (with league approval) to 10 year olds. Kid pitch, emphasis continues to focus on safety, skill development and fun with the level of play is more competitive. 60' diamond with a 46' pitching distance. Typically, 2 games per week (Saturdays and a week day) with practices at coach's discretion. Season starts mid-April and ends the end of June.

2.1.5. Majors

11 to 12 year olds. Kid pitch, emphasis continues to focus on safety, skill development and fun with a competitive level of play. 70' diamond with a 50' pitching distance. Typically, 2 games per week (Saturdays and a week day) with practices at coach's discretion. Season starts mid-April and ends the end of June.

2.2 Senior Divisions: Leagues

2.2.1 Babe Ruth

13-15 years old. Kid pitch, emphasis continues to focus on safety, skill development and fun with a competitive level of play. 90' diamond with a 60'6" pitching distance. Games played on weekdays and on weekends with practices at coach's discretion. Season starts mid-April and ends the end of June.

2.2.2 Mickey Mantel (ENYMM)

2.2.3 Connie Mack (ENYCM)

2.2.4 Travel